

WHITE HONDALIA

SHONDALIA WHITE

BIO

Shondalia White is a multi-hyphenate actress, stand-up comic, and writer working across a wide variety of entertainment. Although her first love is comedy, the Flint, Michigan native has completed extensive voiceover roles in several animated films and highly rated television programs, including Nickelodeon's Casagrandes, Pixar's Onward, and Nickelodeon's Planet Claire short. White's foray into entertainment came after graduating from the College for Creative Studies in Detroit with a BFA in Animation/Digital Media. She credits the animation industry with helping her become the storyteller and actress that she is today.

This fall, White starred in Starz's highly buzzed gritty drama Black Mafia Family (BMF), helmed by Executive Producer Curtis 50 Cent Jackson. BMF is inspired by the true story of two brothers who rose from the decaying streets of southwest Detroit in the late 1980s and gave birth to one of the most influential crime families in this country. Demetrius "Big Meech" Flenory's charismatic leadership, Terry "Southwest T" Flenory's business acumen, and the fraternal partnership's vision beyond the drug trade and into the world of Hip Hop would render the brothers iconic on a global level. White starred as the no-nonsense, God-fearing attorney, Karen Jones, who's committed to ensuring Terry receives a proper settlement over a botched surgery.

White was most recently seen recurring on Freeform's Good Trouble as well as guest-starring roles on Emmy nominated series, Black-ish, Animal Kingdom, 9-1-1: Lone Star and Family Reunion.

Shondalia is best known for bringing her smiley face with a slick tongue humor style and infectious energy to stand-up comedy. Often finding approachable ways to tackle tough topics. White continues to grace the stages of some of the most sought-after comedy houses in Los Angeles and has been featured alongside legendary comedians such as DL Hughley and Cedric The Entertainer. Behind the scenes, White has written and executive produced web sketch series for digital platforms, including What The?! on YouTube and the dramedy web series Pillow Talk on Facebook. She is currently working on her TV pilot.

Tyshon Freeman (The Quad) and Shondalia White (Good Trouble) are set for key recurring roles in Starz's drama series BMF (aka Black Mafia Family), from executive producer Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson (Power, Power Book II: Ghost, For Life) and writer/executive producer and Detroit native Randy Huggins (Star, Rebel, Power).

BMF is inspired by the true story of two brothers who rose from the decaying streets of southwest Detroit in the late 1980's and gave birth to one of the most influential crime families in this country. Demetrius "Big Meech" Flenory's charismatic leadership, Terry "Southwest T" Flenory's business acumen and the fraternal partnership's vision beyond the drug trade and into the world of Hip Hop would render the brothers iconic on a global level. Their unwavering belief in family loyalty would be the cornerstone of their partnership and the crux of their eventual estrangement. The series is about love, kinship

Interview: Shondalia White of Starz's BMF

Written by Staff / on November 20, 2021

Shondalia White, taps in to her Michigan roots and captivates in her role as Karen Jones, the attorney for Terry Flenory on Starz's breakout series BMF. The fictional story is loosely based on the real lives of the Flenory brothers from Detroit who created one of largest drug cartels in the United States, the Black Mafia Family.

With the debut season coming to an end this weekend, White speaks on the show, her acting career and so much more.

I love the BMF show, I thought it was dope how you decided to take back the case after Terry's father insulted you. I'm excited to watch the finale this Sunday. Off stage, who is
